

General information

* indicates a required field

The Lasting Legacies grants program has funding between $20,001 and $80,000 available for projects and activities that are significant from a State perspective. They should have a project delivery life of 12 months or less, although projects with a longer project delivery life may be considered on their merits.

I have read the Queensland Anzac Centenary Lasting Legacies application guidelines. *

Yes No

Guidelines are on the Queensland Anzac Centenary website <http://anzac100.initiatives.qld.gov.au/grants/lasting-legacies/assets/lasting-legacies-guidelines-2017.pdf>

Declaration of relationship and managing conflicts of interest

This declaration clarifies any relationships or conflicts of interest that an applicant may have ahead of the assessment process.

Declaring a conflict of interest or prior relationship will not exclude an applicant from applying for funding. The Anzac Centenary Coordination Unit (ACCU) will liaise with the Chair of the Grants Executive Panel to discuss any potential conflicts of interest or relationships. Please indicate where necessary, any business or personal relationships with the Anzac Centenary Coordination Unit, Queensland Advisory Committee for the Commemoration of the Anzac Centenary (QACCAC) or other officers within the Department of the Premier and Cabinet (DPC).

It should be stressed that potential or real conflicts of interest can occur at any time, and indeed are a normal part of life. It is however important that applicants express potential or real conflicts of interest. If in doubt, we recommend a relationship be disclosed.

I declare that: *

- I DO NOT have a conflict of interest or relationship with the ACCU, QACCAC or other officers within DPC
- I DO have a conflict of interest with the ACCU, QACCAC or other officers within DPC
- I am declaring a relationship with the ACCU, QACCAC or other officers within DPC

What is your relationship or conflict of interest, if any, with ACCU, the assessment panel or QACCAC?
