ORGANISATION NAME	Logan City Council
PROJECT TITLE	Logan's Anzacs
PROJECT SCOPE	Logan's Anzacs aims to research and uncover the stories of soldiers from the City of Logan who served between 1914 and 1918, using the skills of a professional researcher. A comprehensive database will be compiled based on service records and archival material, and a series of stories will be developed that tell of specific contributions to the First World War. The research will also find out what happened to them on their return, if they returned, and trace any of their descendants who may be living in Logan and seek out memorabilia to flesh out their stories. The project will produce new commemorative content, through oral stories, photographs, news cuttings and memorabilia, which will be digitised to become a permanent record in Logan City Council's growing Local Studies collection of images and stories. Key stories from the research will form the basis of a small travelling exhibition of pull-up banners that will be available for loan to libraries, schools and RSLs in the City of Logan, and be uploaded to Historypin.
GRANT AMOUNT	$10,625.00*
STATE ELECTORATE	Woodridge
